Practical Considerations:

Program: Please check which of our volunteer programs you are interested in.

(See program descriptions on the volunteer page of our website.)

- 1. Baby Care Program
- 2. Toddler (2yr+) Program
- 3. Stimulation and Development Program
- 4. Specialized / Internship Program

Will you be comfortable working with special needs children?

Personal Interest: Based on your selected program(s) above, please tell us how you would like to assist, what you hope to achieve, and why you would like to volunteer with us.

Length of Stay: How long would you like to volunteer with us? Include a rough timeline of your arrival and departure dates.

Independent Living: Door of Hope volunteers are expected to be able to live as fully independent adults, including seeing to their own transportation, navigating the world outside of Door of Hope on their own in a foreign country, shopping, cooking, and cleaning for themselves, and working with their own personal budget. Are you willing and able to meet this challenge? If you are a younger applicant, what life experience has prepared you to live independently?

Financial Responsibility: Door of Hope volunteers are fully responsible for all their own expenses, including visa-related expenses, accommodation, travel, food, entertainment, etc. Please describe how you intend to fund your entire time volunteering with us.

IMPORTANT* – READ BEFORE CONTINUING:

If you are unable to live independently and/or fully fund yourself, volunteering at Door of Hope is not a viable option for you. If, however, you have responded positively to the practical considerations above, please continue with the rest of the application.
